On The Other Islands

Pinkham On Waikiki Reclamation
Governor Pinkham on Tuesday read a message to the joint houses of the legislature advocating the appointment of a commission to make surveys and plans for reclaiming the whole Waikiki swamp district. The commission should report to the 1919 legislature.

German Sailors Arrested
Five German sailors, all members of the American schooner Gamble, just arrived from South America, were arrested on instructions from Washington as they were preparing to sail again on the same vessel. "Alien enemies" are not permitted to be sailors on American vessels.

Honolulu Election Under Old Law
Because the new Honolulu city charter bill would not become effective, and also because the Governor, on advice of Secretary Thayer, will probably not sign the bill which is now in his possession, the coming Honolulu elections will be held under the old law. The Secretary on Wednesday issued the election proclamation as required by law.

Jitney Cars In Honolulu
Nigel Jackson, of Honolulu, has inaugurated an auto jitney service between Fort Shafter and King street and Kalakaua avenue. It is reported that a number of other drivers are considering also entering into competition with the street cars on the same basis.

David Pullar Suicides
David Pullar, head bookkeeper of the Pepee Sugar Company, Hawaii, shot and killed himself in the plantation office, on Thursday morning of last week. Illness is ascribed as the cause. He was at one time a resident of Maui.

Negro Soldier Shoots Other
Private John Duncan, a negro soldier in the 25th Infantry, was shot and killed by J. Brooks, another soldier of the same regiment, in a pistol duel on King street, Honolulu, last Saturday night. Duncan is said to have fired several shots at Brooks while the latter was unarmed. After securing a revolver from his room in a lodging house, Brooks fired the shot which penetrated Duncan's heart.

Japanese Would Fight Germans
Much enthusiasm is said to exist in Honolulu and Hilo over the United States declaring war on Germany. In Hilo the Japanese-American citizenship league, has adopted resolutions pledging fullest support to American arms. In Honolulu many Hawaiian born Japanese and also Japanese residents, are asking to be permitted to enlist.

Browns Win In Court
Judge Dickey has just handed down his final decision in the Brown case, in which he confirms his former decision, and orders, that a permanent writ of mandamus be issued commanding the respondents to forthwith reinstate the petitioner as principal of the Waimaea school. This however apparently does not carry with it the payment of back salary.—Garden Island.

Officers Bar Booze
The United States army officers on duty on Oahu have definitely aligned themselves as against the selling of liquor while the war is on between Germany and the United States. Last Saturday the officers' club at Schofield Barracks went dry. The officers took the stand that the club should set an example to the enlisted men of the army, particularly in view of the fact that General Strong has expressed himself strongly in favor of the elimination of the saloon.

War Will Cost Territory High
Estimates compiled for the senate ways and means committee to show what amounts the government will need to appropriate to make up for salary losses to territorial or county employees called into active service show a monthly total of $16,382.88. Of this amount Oahu's share is $11,774.49 a month; Hawaii, $2863; Maui, $1,105.49, and Kauai, $640.

Tourist Traffic Slumps
That the war has dropped the bottom out of the tourist traffic is the fact acknowledged by all. The Great Northern arriving on her last trip this week, brought but 123 passengers, the smallest number she ever carried to the Islands. Promotion men are inclined to believe that there will be a revival of travel in a comparatively short time, unless the Germans should actually manage to get a raider at work in the Pacific.

No Puget Sound Service Now
E. D. Tenney, vice-president of the Matson Navigation Company, who returned to the Islands last week by the new Maui, states that there is no possibility for the present that the company will be able to resume its Puget Sound-Hawaii service, which the Seattle chamber of commerce and island commercial bodies have been petitioning for. It will strain the facilities of the line to take care of the business from San Francisco, Mr. Tenney declared.

Memorial Service For Hawaii's War Victims
Rev. L. B. Kaumehelwa, of Wailuku, chaplain of the house of representatives, will deliver the invocation at the memorial exercises to be held in the Capitol, Honolulu, in honor of the 5 Hawaiian victims of German ruthlessness, who lost their lives in the submarine of the American freighter Aztec by a submarine. The men were—John Davis, Ekela, Kaohi King street, Honolulu, last Saturday night. Duncan is said to have fired several shots at Brooks while the latter was unarmed. After securing a revolver from his room in a lodging house, Brooks fired the shot which penetrated Duncan's heart.

Anthrax On Kauai?
An epidemic which Dr. Kuhns has diagnosed as anthrax, but which Dr. Norzgard, territorial veterinarian, has declared to be Haemorrhagic septicaemia, is causing great alarm on the island of Kauai. Sixty-three head of cattle, horses, and a mule have died on the Hanalei Plantation within the past 3 weeks of the malady. If the disease should prove to be anthrax its appearance in the Islands, and especially on Kauai would be a deep mystery as it has never been known here. Haemorrhagic septicaemia, on the other hand, is quite common but is rarely so severe as reported in this instance.

Saloons To Close At 7 P. M.
Under the new regulations, as adopted by the liquor commissioners for the city of Honolulu, at a meeting held last Monday, and which go into effect next Monday, during the continuance of the war with Germany saloons must close at seven o'clock in the evening, wholesalers at five o'clock; cafes of the second class holding hotel licenses must not sell liquor later than seven o'clock except with bona fide meals, but with such meals may serve liquor as late as ten o'clock; restaurants must shut off the booze at ten o'clock.
